Gender Pay Gap Data: Snapshot date 5th April 2023

Context

The Equality Act 2010 (Specific Duties and Public Authorities) Regulations 2017 requires all Organisations with 250 employees or more to report annually on their gender pay gap. The gender pay gap is defined as the difference in the average earnings of men and women over a defined time period, regardless of role or seniority. The report is required to publish data on the mean and median salary pay gap, the proportion of males and females in each pay quartile and the pay gap between males and females for staff who receive bonus payments.
